Their statements are taken on record.

3. It is apt to reproduce herein relevant portion of the judgment referred to above: -

“2. It is not in dispute that after the judgment rendered by the Apex Court in Pradesh Pong Bandh Visthapit Samiti, Rajasthan & Another versus Union of India & Others, (1996) 9 Supreme Court Cases 749, a high power committee has been constituted to look into the grievance of the petitioners and similar situate persons. This committee is still functional.

Accordingly, the petitioners are permitted to make representation(s) before the high power committee. The committee shall look into the grievance of the petitioners and similar situate persons within a period of six months after receipt of the representation(s). The committee shall also be guided by the judgment rendered by this Court in CWP No.492 of 2007, titled as “Ashwani Kumar V. Union of India”, decided on 29.3.2011, against which an SLP was preferred which was dismissed by Hon’ble Supreme Court on 2.1.2013. It is made clear that the limitation/delay shall not come in the way of the petitioner(s). It is also made clear that the high power committee shall decide the cases individually and pass speaking/detailed order(s), strictly as per the averments made in the representation(s). It is further clarified that if the land is available in Sriganganagar (reserved area), this aspect shall also be taken into consideration. The respondent-State is also directed to issue the eligibility certificate in favour of the petitioners in CWPs No.11070 of 2011-G and 1158 of 2013 in order to enable them to present their cases before the high power committee.”

4. It is also stated that the judgment referred to above was also followed by the Division Bench of this Court and upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a judgment rendered in SLP(C) No.21904 of 2012 (State of Rajasthan & another vs. Ashwani Kumar Sharma & others), decided on 2nd January, 2013 and the Special Leave Petition was dismissed.

5. In the given circumstances, this writ petition is disposed of in terms of the aforesaid judgment in Bakshi Ram's case, supra, with liberty to the writ petitioner to file representation within four weeks before the High Power Committee. The said Committee is directed to decide the same within a period of three months thereafter. The decision so arrived at shall also be communicated to the petitioner.

The writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms, so also the pending miscellaneous application(s), if any.
