

Chander Shekhar versus Mohan Lal

Criminal Revision No. 389 of 2022

03.04.2025 Present: Applicant in person with Mr. Rakesh Chauhan, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Nitin Mishra, Advocate for the respondent.

On the last date of hearing, non-bailable warrants were ordered to be issued against the petitioner. However, the Non-bailable warrants have been received back, unexecuted.

Considering the fact that the petitioner has voluntarily put appearance, the case is now adjourned for 9th May, 2025.

Since, the surety, despite service of notice, has not bothered to put appearance before this Court, the surety bond so furnished by him are ordered to be cancelled. As such, learned counsel for the petitioner has prayed that the petitioner may be permitted to furnish fresh surety.

Consequently, the petitioner is directed to furnish surety bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- to the satisfaction of learned Registrar (Judicial).
