

Chander Shekhar versus Mohan Lal

Cr.Revision No. 389 of 2022

26.04.2024 Present: Mr. Atul Verma, Advocate vice Mr. Parveen Chauhan, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Rajinder Thakur, Advocate, for the respondent.

On 22.07.2022, this Court had suspended the substantive sentence, subject to deposit of 40% of the compensation amount and furnishing of personal bond and surety bond.

2. Almost two years have elapsed. It appears that the petitioner-accused [Chander Shekhar] is not coming forth to liquidate/remit/discharge his liability, in terms of the judgment of conviction and sentence dated 01.10.2019/05.10.2019 passed by Learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Nalagarh, District Solan, (HP) [hereinafter referred to as ‘Trial Court’] which stands affirmed on 18.07.2022 by Learned Additional Sessions Judge, Nalagarh, District Solan, (HP) [hereinafter referred to as ‘Appellate Court’]; whereby, the petitioner-accused Chander Shekhar was fastened with the compensation of Rs 2,00,000/- [Rupees Two Lakh] [cheque amount and compensation].

3. Even as per report of the Registry, an amount of Rs 80,000/- [Rupees Eighty Thousand] has been deposited in the Trial Court.

4. Be that as it may, an amount of Rs 1,20,000/- [Rupees One Lakh Twenty Thousand] is yet to be remitted/liquidated by the petitioner-accused [Chander Shekhar] in favour of the Respondent-Complainant [Mohan Lal].

5. The passing of this order shall not preclude the petitioner from making efforts towards settlement on or before next date of hearing.

In order to expedite the process of settlement, this Court directs that learned counsel for the Respondent-Complainant to furnish Bank Account Details of Respondent-Complainant to the learned counsel for the petitioner within three days from today. In case the amount is not liquidated, in terms of the order passed today, the petitioner appears before this Court on 30th May, 2024.
