

6.11.2015 Present: Mr. Pushpinder Jaswal, Advocate for the appellant.

Admit.

CMP No.11032/2015

Aggrieved by the award dated 5.6.2015, passed by learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Mandi, in Claim Petition No.995 of 2013, the insurer, i.e., 3rd respondent before the Tribunal below, has preferred the main appeal. This application has been filed for staying the execution of the impugned award. The disposal of the appeal is likely to take slightly longer time. Statutory amount, i.e., ₹25,000/- stands already deposited. Therefore, having regard to the given facts and circumstances and also the record available at this stage, the application is allowed. Consequently, the execution of the impugned award shall remain stayed during the pendency of the appeal in this Court, subject to deposit of the balance amount of compensation by the appellant-Insurance Company, within six weeks. The application stands disposed of.
