

State of H.P. versus Naveen

CR. Appeal No. 317 of 2022

11.03.2024 Present: Mr. B.N.Sharma, Additional Advocate General, for the petitioner.

In terms of the order dated 11.12.2023 and the bailable warrants issued thereto, respondent-accused (Naveen) is present in person.

He submits that he is not in a position to engage a lawyer and therefore, he prays for time for appointment of a legal aid counsel through the intervention of this Court/Himachal Pradesh State Legal Services Authority, Shimla. .

Accordingly, the Secretary, H.P. State Legal Services Authority, Shimla, is directed to complete the formalities to provide legal aid counsel to the respondent within a week from today. Consequent upon the appointment of a legal aid counsel, the Registry is directed to inform the accused of the action taken with full details of learned counsel i.e. email; mobile number and address, so as to enable him to coordinate with the learned counsel in the matter.

List after four weeks.
