CMP No.22666 of 2026

The instant application under Section 151 of CPC, has been filed by the applicant/performa respondent No.6, Krishan Dutt, for release of award amount alongwith up-to-date interest, in his favour, as per his share.

Learned counsel for the non-applicants/appellants, stated that she doesn't intend to file any reply to the present application. She further stated that since the main appeal stands finally decided on 02.01.2023 by this Court and no appeal has been preferred against the said judgment by either of the parties, the same has attained finality, she has no objection in case the prayer made in the application is allowed.

Heard. Having perused the averments made in the application, which are duly supported with the affidavit of the applicant, Krishan Dutt, coupled with the fact that the judgment passed by this Court has attained finality, this Court finds it in the interest of justice to release the award amount alongwith up-to-date interest as lying deposited in the Registry of this Court in favour of the applicant/respondent No.6, Krishan Dutt, as per his share, after proper verification and identification, by remitting the same to his saving bank account, as per his share, detail whereof has been mentioned in copy of saving bank account, annexed with the application as Annexures A-1 & A-2.

Application stands disposed of.

CMP Nos. 2532 & 22667 of 2026

At this stage, applicants/appellants are exempted from filing English translation of Annexure A-2.

Applications stand disposed of.

United India Insurance Co. Ltd. vs. Gaurja Devi & Ors.

FAO(MV) No.240 of 2025

17.09.2026

Present: Mr. Bhupinder Pathania, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. H.S. Rangra, Advocate, for respondents No.1 to 5.

Mr. Munish Datwalia, Advocate, for respondent No.6.

CMP No.21172 of 2026

The present application under Section 151 of CPC, has been filed by the applicants/respondents No.1 to 5, namely, Gaurja Devi, Kamal Kant, Meenaxi @ Meenakshi Kumari, Reena Devi and Neelam Kumari, for release of awarded amount in their favour, as per their shares, as lying deposited in the Registry of this Court. The application is duly supported with affidavits of all the applicants.

As per the applicants, they are in dire need of money and as the main appeal is pending adjudication before this Court, which may take some time for its disposal, their prayer for release of amount of compensation, as lying deposited in the Registry of this Court, may be accepted and the amount, as prayed for, may be ordered to be released in their favour.

No reply is intended to be filed to the present application. However, learned counsel for the non-applicant/appellant has opposed the application on the ground that if the amount, as prayed, is released in favour of the aforesaid applicants/respondents, it would be difficult for it to recover the same in the event of appeal being allowed, which would result into the multiplicity of litigation between the parties. Hence, prayer for dismissal of the application has been made.

1. Heard. Having perused the averments made in the application, which are duly supported with the affidavits of aforesaid applicants/respondents and also in view of the fact that the appeal may take sufficiently long time for its final adjudication, this Court finds it in the interest of justice to release 30% each of the awarded amount of compensation in favour of applicants/respondents No.1 to 5, namely, Gaurja Devi, Kamal Kant, Meenaxi @ Meenakshi Kumari, Reena Devi and Neelam Kumari, alongwith up-to-date interest, as per their respective shares after proper verification and identification by remitting the same to their saving bank accounts, details whereof have been given in Para-3 of the application.

Needless to say that the release of amount will be subject to the final outcome of the appeal and in the event of appeal being allowed, aforesaid applicants/respondents, will have to refund the amount, so released in their favour, with interest.

Application stands disposed of.
