By way of this application, a prayer has been made by the applicant to permit him to amend the writ petition.

Learned Counsel for the applicant has taken the Court through the application and submitted that the necessity to amend the writ petition has arisen on account of subsequent developments and on account of the acts of omission of the respondents. Accordingly, she prayed that this application be allowed and the applicant be permitted to amend the writ petition.

Having heard learned Counsel for the applicant and having perused the averments made in the application as also the proposed amendment, this Court is of the considered view that as the proposed amendments are on account of events which have taken place during the pendency of the writ petition, no prejudice shall be caused to the respondents, in case, the amendments are allowed as prayed for. This Court also concurs with the submission of learned Counsel for the applicant that this will result in avoiding of multiplicity of litigation. Accordingly, this application is allowed and the petitioner is permitted to incorporate the amendments in terms of the application. The application stands disposed of accordingly.
