

State of H.P. & Ors. Vs. Piar Chand

CWP No.7378 of 2023

03.09.2024 Present: Mr. Anup Rattan, Advocate General with Mr. Y.P.S. Dhaulta, Additional Advocate General and Ms. Leena Guleria, Deputy Advocate General, for the petitioners-State.

Mr. Sunil Kumar, Advocate vice Mr. Rahul Mahajan, Advocate, for the respondent (since dead).

Despite grant of final opportunity under order dated 18.07.2024, consequential steps have not been taken on account of death of the sole respondent. The order passed on 18.07.2024 reads as under:-

“Steps for representation of deceased respondent have still not been taken by the petitioner. At the request of learned Deputy Advocate General, final opportunity of three weeks’ is granted, failing which, the matter shall be dismissed for want of prosecution.”

Learned Additional Advocate General submits that the above order could not be communicated to the concerned quarters, hence, the lapse. He prays for one more opportunity by way of indulgence for taking the requisite steps.

At the request of learned Additional Advocate General, further two weeks’ time is granted for taking consequential steps on account of death of the respondent. List immediately thereafter.

September 03, 2024
Mukesh

Jyotsna Rewal Dua
Judge