Mr Jitender Sharma, Additional Advocate General, for the respondent-State.

Cr. Revision No. 434 of 2026

Copy of the petition be supplied to learned Additional Advocate General for the respondent-State.

Records be called for.

Cr.MP No. 3022 of 2026

The learned Courts below had found that Dharmender (PW1), Umer Deen (PW2), Anil Kumar (PW4) and Lekh Raj (PW5) were the spot witnesses whose testimonies proved that the accused persons had restrained them from carrying on the work, gave them beatings and pelted stones upon them, however, the statement of Dr. Rishu (PW6) shows that Lekh Raj and Anil Kumar had not sustained any injury and prima facie, the presence of these persons on the spot and their testimonies that they were beaten by the accused is made doubtful by the statement of the Medical Officer. Therefore, the petitioners have an arguable case in their favour.

The applicants/petitioners were sentenced to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of three months for the commission of offence punishable under Section 149 of IPC; to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of one month for the commission of offence punishable under Section 341 read with Section 149 of IPC; to further undergo simple imprisonment for one month for the commission of offence punishable under Section 323 read with Section 149 of IPC; and to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of six months and to pay fine of ₹1,000/- for the commission of an offence punishable under Section 506 read with Section 149 of IPC and in case of default of payment of fine, to further undergo simple imprisonment for one month.

Since the disposal of the petition is likely to take some time, hence the substantive sentence of imprisonment imposed by the learned Trial Court is ordered to be suspended till further orders, subject to furnishing of the personal bond in the sum of ₹ 50,000/- each with one surety each in the like amount to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court within a period of one month from today with an undertaking to appear and serve the sentence, in case of dismissal of the present revision and subject to deposit of fine amount, if not deposited earlier.

The bail bonds, so furnished by the applicants/petitioners, be transmitted to this Court for placing them on record.

A copy of this order be sent to the learned Trial Court for information. Reply to the application, as prayed, be filed within four weeks.
