This Court had granted the interim protection to the petitioner-accused on 21.12.2023 whereby substantive sentence was suspended subject to deposit of 50% of the amount of compensation and furnishing of personal and surety bonds in the sum of Rs.25,000/- within a period of four weeks.

2. The case records reveal that even after expiry of four weeks needful was not done. Thereafter, on 26.02.2024 an application was filed for extension of time to comply with the order dated 21.12.2023, which was allowed with the direction to comply with the said order within one month. Now, almost six weeks over and above the extended period granted on 20.03.2024 has also elapsed. The petitioner-accused has still not complied with the orders.

Accordingly, the interim protection granted on 21.12.2023, which was extended on 20.03.2024, shall stand vacated.
