

Ishwar Dayal Vs. Dr. Y.S. Parmar University

CWP No.15718/2025

06.10.2025 Present: Ms. Anchal Sharma and Ms. Rinkle, Advocates, for the petitioner.

Mr. Mohit Sharma, Advocate vice Ms. Vandana Misra, Advocate for the respondent.

CWP No. 15718/2025 & CMP No. 24100/2025

Notice. Mr. Mohit Sharma, learned vice counsel, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent.

Petitioner's primary grievance appears to be that, though pursuant to the directions issued by the Court in previous writ petition preferred by him, the respondent-University has regularized his services under office order dated 22.04.2024 from the date he completed seven years of service retrospectively, however, on notional basis. Actual benefits have been granted to him only from the date of his reporting for duty pursuant to the aforesaid office order. The petitioner seeks grant of actual benefits on the ground that he had continuously discharged his duties during the period in question all through out.

Let the respondent file/obtain reply/instructions adverting to the above grievance of the petitioner.

List on 07.10.2025.

Jyotsna Rewal Dua
Judge

06th October, 2025 (Rohit)