counsel, appear and waive service of notice on behalf of respondents No.1 and 2, respectively.

2. Petitioners are serving in respondent No.2-University and have prayed for direction to the respondents to grant them work charge status from the date they completed eight years of service with all incidental benefits.

3. Learned vice counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the issue involved in the writ petitions and the relief prayed for by the petitioners are now covered by the decision rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court in The State of Himachal Pradesh & Ors. Versus Surajmani & Anr.². Learned vice counsel further submits that the petitioners would be satisfied in case the respondents are directed to examine their respective cases in light of the aforesaid judgment within a fixed time schedule. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents are not averse to this prayer.

4. Having regard to the afore-submissions, but without examining the merits of the matters, these writ petitions are disposed of with direction to the respondents/competent authority to consider and decide the respective cases of the petitioners in accordance with law laid down in
