06/14.11.2024      Pursuant to the order dated 25.10.2024, the appellant is physically present. The respondent has also appeared before us.

The appellant has flatly refused to enter into a settlement as he has stated that he had not paid a single farthing to the respondent inspite of the order passed by the learned trial court in Original Suit No. 75/2021. The appellant has further stated that he works as a Munshi in S.R.F. Construction Company and since the said company is in dire financial state, he is not in a position to make any payment. Since the respondent has also appeared before us, though there was no order for her appearance, perhaps on the assumption that the matter will be settled and she will be granted the permanent alimony as directed by the learned trial court and at the intervention of Mr. Gautam Kumar, learned counsel for the appellant, the appellant has agreed to make payment of Rs. 5,000/- to the respondent which shall include her travelling expenses as well as other expenses incurred in coming from Gumla to this Court. We appreciate such endeavour taken by Mr. Gautam Kumar, learned counsel for the appellant. He is directed to hand over a draft amounting to Rs. 5,000/- drawn in the name of the respondent which shall be handed over to Mr. Md. Kaisar Alam, learned counsel appearing for the respondent, who in turn, shall forward the same to the respondent by 20th November, 2024. Once the draft is handed over to Mr. Kaisar Alam, learned counsel for the respondent by Mr. Gautam Kumar, learned counsel for the appellant, a photocopy of the draft shall be handed to this Court so as to include the same in the records of the case.

Since, the matter could not be settled, there is no other option but to hear the same on merits. Accordingly, let this case be listed under the heading 'For Hearing' on 17.12.2024.
