Order No. 05/Dated: 10th July, 2025

1. It appears that twice time was accorded to the opposite party for filing counter affidavit, but no one turn up nor counter affidavit has been filed by the opposite party.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.
3. This transfer petition (civil) has been filed for transfer of Original Suit No. 170 of 2024 from the Court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Ranchi to the Court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Bokaro.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was married with the opposite party on 11.05.2022 according to the Hindu rites and customs.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that after marriage, respondent and his family members have demanding additional dowry and when the petitioner shown her inability to make payment of additional dowry through her parents, the respondent and his family members started committing cruelty upon the petitioner and ousted the petitioner by saying that if she stayed here then they will kill her. Thereafter, the petitioner came to her parents' house.

6. It is further submitted that petitioner is a household lady and is residing with her parents at Bokaro and has no independent source of income, therefore, cannot contest the case at Ranchi, which is about 120 km. away from Bokaro, therefore, it is expedient in the interest of justice that this transfer petition (civil) may be allowed by transferring the Original Suit No. 170 of 2024 from the court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Ranchi to the court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Bokaro.

7. Considering the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner and the factual aspects of the case as pointed out, I feel inclined to allow this petition.

8. Accordingly, the proceeding of Original Suit No. 170 of 2024, pending before the Court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Ranchi is hereby transferred to the Court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Bokaro.

9. Accordingly, the present transfer petition is allowed.
