I.A. No.11311 of 2024

This interlocutory application has been preferred for impleadment of the proposed intervener-respondent.

2. This is a case where the petitioner has prayed for grant of compassionate appointment claiming herself to be the wife of the deceased employee.

3. This application for intervention has been preferred by the mother of the deceased employee, stating that the deceased had never married this petitioner.

4. Considering the rival contentions, the mother of the deceased employee who is the intervener herein, is a proper party to be heard in this litigation. Thus, the intervener-respondent namely Sandhya Verma, W/o Late Ravishankar Verma, be impleaded as party respondent to the writ petition.

5. Accordingly, this interlocutory application stands allowed.

6. Necessary corrections be carried out in the cause title by impleading the name of above named intervener-respondent, in red ink and a fresh typed copy of amended cause title be also filed within two weeks.
