

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JHARKHAND AT RANCHI

L.P.A. (Filing) No. 614 of 2025

The State of Jharkhand & Others Appellants
Versus
Manju Sharma & Another Respondents

CORAM

HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH SHANKAR

For the Appellants: Mr. Ratnesh Kumar, Advocate
For the Respondents: -

06/22.01.2026

1. Learned counsel for the appellants submits that most of the office objections have been cleared and only seven pages, which are illegible, have not been tagged. He points out that those pages are completely illegible and were supplied by the respondents-petitioners. He accordingly submits that the objections may be waived.
2. We waive the objections in these peculiar circumstances.
3. If the respondents wish to rely on those documents, we may perhaps request them, who had at the very first place filed such documents, to provide legible copy of the same.
4. If all other objections have been cleared, the Registry to number the appeal and place the same under the appropriate heading on 11.02.2026.
