

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JHARKHAND AT RANCHI
(Civil Writ Jurisdiction)
W.P. (C) Filing No.636 of 2026

Kailash Ram			Petitioner(s)
Versus
The State of Jharkhand & Ors.			Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH KUMAR

For the Petitioner(s)	: Mr. Kanishka Deo, Adv.
For the Respondent(s)	: Mr. Sahbaj Akhtar, A.C. to A.A.G.-III

03/Dated: 22nd January, 2026

1. The matter has been mentioned on the ground that there is an imminent threat of removal of the petitioner from the residential house in question.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has given an undertaking that the defect(s), as pointed out by the Registry, shall be removed within a period of one week.
3. The petitioner claims that the property in question is a residential house and that he has been residing therein since the year 1946. It is further stated that a proceeding was initiated under the provisions of the Santhal Pargana Tenancy Act at the instance of the private respondents, wherein the Original Authority passed an order in favour of the petitioner; however, the said order has been reversed by the appellate as well as the revisional authority.
4. Issue notice upon the private respondents, both under speed post as well as ordinary process, for which requisites etc. must be filed within a week, failing which the present petition shall stand dismissed without further reference to a Bench.
5. Although no execution case number has been disclosed, a notice has been brought on record indicating that a date has been fixed for eviction and that police force has also been allotted. In view thereof, the respondents are directed not to evict the petitioner from the residential house in question till the next date of hearing.
6. As prayed for, put up this case after six weeks.

(Rajesh Kumar, J.)
