as the learned counsel appearing for the State.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Angara P.S. Case No.98 of 2022 for the alleged offences registered under Sections 406, 407, 120(B), 34 of the B.N.S., pending in the Court of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Ranchi.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that petitioner is the driver of the truck and the allegations are made that the informant had hired the truck for transporting paddy from Sisai to West Bengal. The petitioner along with truck owner were going to West Bengal loaded with the paddy on the said truck. He further submits that the truck met with an accident and half of the paddy was taken away by the miscreants and half has remained on the said truck. He next submits that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent as disclosed in paragraph No.11 of the petition.
He also submits that the owner of the truck has informed to the informant that truck has met with an accident.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer and submits that the allegations are thereof not delivering the paddy on the describe destination.

5. Considering that in F.I.R. itself it has been pointed out that the tuck has met with an accident and usually it happens of taking the article from the accidental truck by the nearby people, the petitioner is having no criminal antecedent as disclosed in paragraph No.11 of the petition. In that view of the matter, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned Court within two weeks and the learned Court shall release the petitioner on such terms and conditions or the sureties as the learned Court may deem fit and proper.

6. Accordingly, this anticipatory bail application is disposed of.
