HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH SHANKAR

For the Appellants:

Mr. Anurag Kumar

For the State:

Mr. Shiv Kumar Sharma, A.P.P

04/28.02.2019

I.A. No. 1633/2019

The present interlocutory application has been filed for condonation of delay of 103 days in filing the present criminal appeal.

Having heard learned counsel for the appellants as well as learned A.P.P and for the reasons stated in the present interlocutory application, the delay of 103 days in filing the present appeal is hereby condoned.

The present interlocutory application stands disposed of.

The present interlocutory application has been filed on behalf of the appellants under Section 389(1) of the Cr.P.C for suspension of sentence awarded to the appellants by the learned Trial Court during the pendency of the present appeal.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the fact that the appellants have already remained in judicial custody for about three years out of the maximum sentence of three and half years, the execution of the sentence awarded to the appellants by the learned Trial Court shall remain suspended during the pendency of the present appeal.

Accordingly, the above named two appellants are directed to be released on bail, during the pendency of the present appeal, on furnishing bail-bond of Rs.20,000/- (twenty thousand only) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Sessions Judge-III, Garhwa in connection with S.T. No. 141/2016, arising out of Nagaruntari P.S. Case No. 293/2015 (G.R. No. 2444/2015).

The present interlocutory application stands disposed of.

Cr. Appeal (S.J) No. 122 of 2019

The present appeal is admitted for hearing.
