I.A. No.5950 of 2026

This interlocutory application has been filed seeking intervention.

2. It is the case of the intervenor that the plots which the petitioners want to be recorded in their name already stands recorded in the name of proposed intervenor, thus, he is a necessary party.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners oppose the intervention and submits that the ancestors of the proposed intervenor have sold the plots to the ancestors of these petitioners, thus, he is not a necessary party.

4. Considering the submission made by both the parties, I am of the opinion that the proposed intervenor needs to be heard in this case, thus, I.A. No.5950 of 2026 is allowed.

5. Petitioners are directed to make necessary correction in the cause-title and file a type copy of cause-title by the end of this week and they are also directed to serve a copy of the writ petition to the proposed intervenor.

6. State and proposed intervenor are directed to file their counter affidavit within four weeks.

7. List this case after four weeks under the heading 'Admission.'
