Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner committed murder of Hemlal Murmu and caused disappearance of the evidence of the murder by hiding the dead body of the deceased. It is submitted that the allegation against the petitioner is false and the petitioner is not named in the FIR and he has been implicated in this case only on the basis of the confessional statement of the co-accused persons. It is next submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner undertakes to co-operate with the trial of the case and undertakes not to annoy or disturb the informant or the other witness of the case in any manner during trial of the case hence, the petitioner may be admitted to regular bail.

Learned Addl. P.P. opposed the prayer for regular bail.

Considering submissions of learned counsels and the facts as stated above, I am inclined to release the petitioner on bail. Hence, the court below is directed to release the petitioner on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned SDJM, Bermo at Tenughat in connection with Petarbar P.
