CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR CHOUDHARY

For the OPs	: Mr. Raj Nandan Chatterjee, Advocate
	: Mr. Vishwajeet Kr. Tiwary, Advocate

Order No:-08 Dated:-21-08-2026

I.A. No.9802 of 2025

Heard the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that this interlocutory application has been filed with the prayer to condone the delay of 169 days in filing the instant Civil Review. It is next submitted that due to inadvertence and lack of proper knowledge of the petitioner regarding judicial proceedings and procedure, the delay of 169 days occurred in filing the instant Civil Review. It is next submitted that the delay caused in filing the instant Civil Review is neither deliberate nor intentional. It is further submitted that the petitioners have very good grounds to agitate in this Civil Review and unless the delay in filing the instant Civil Review is condoned, the petitioners will be highly prejudiced. Hence, it is submitted that the delay of 169 days in filing the instant Civil Review, be condoned.

Learned counsel for the opposite parties on the other hand vehemently opposes the prayer and submits that the petitioners are deliberately lingering the litigation only to harass the opposite parties, hence, the opposite parties be compensated by way of cost.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made at the bar, the prayer to condone the delay of 169 days in filing this instant Civil Review is allowed subject to payment of cost of Rs.10,000/- by the petitioners to the opposite parties through their counsel appearing in the record within four weeks from the date of this order; failing which this Civil Review shall stand dismissed being barred by limitation.

Accordingly, this interlocutory application stands disposed of.
