Order No. 02/ Dated: 25.03.2026

1. The petition is sought to be mentioned. This is an abuse of the facility of mentioning. The impugned order denying amendment was made on 11 of February, 2026. The matter is being mentioned today simply because the same is posted before the Tribunal for leading evidence.

2. We have no doubt that adjournment will be sought on the ground that the matter is pending. However, this doubt has been cleared by the learned counsel for the petitioner by assuring us that no adjournment will be sought on this ground.

3. Accordingly, the matter to come up in its turn. Learned counsel has also assured that he will place this order before the Tribunal today itself. In the alternate, he says that he will inform the counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner about making of this order and the statement that no adjournment will be applied for.
