1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.
2. This is service matter and the assignment for dealing with such service matters is before the Single Judge. Further, in this case, neither is any provision of any act or rules challenged.
3. The challenge, at the highest, is to the relaxation granted under the Rules. The petitioners contend that the cut-off date, by way of relaxation, should not have been 01.08.2022 but it should have been 01.08.2018. Such a matter would not pertain to the assignment of this Bench.
4. Accordingly, place this matter before the learned Single Judge having the assignment to take up such service matters.
5. Considering the urgency involved, liberty is granted to the petitioners to mention the matters before the appropriate Bench.
