

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JHARKHAND AT RANCHI

C.M.P. No. 353 of 2026

Md. Gani @ Abdul Gani .. Petitioner(s)

-Versus-

M/s Shreesainath (India) Private Limited and Ors....Opp. Party(s)

CORAM : SRI ANANDA SEN, J.

For the petitioner(s): M/s. Amar Kr. Sinha & Sandeep Verma, Advocates.
For the Opp. Party(s) Mr. Rahul Kr. Gupta, Advocate.
Mr. P.A.S. Pati, Advocate.

02/13.04.2026: Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the property in question is a residential house and the order of execution has already been passed.

Counsel for the opposite parties submits that the property in question is not a residential house, rather this is a shop and now today, at about 04:45 p.m., the possession has already been handed over to opposite party No. 1. They submit that they have received some photographs in the mobile showing taking over and handing over of the possession.

Considering the adverse claim of the parties, status quo, as exists today at 4:45 p.m. in respect of possession over the property in question, shall be maintained.

13th April, 2026.
