CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH KUMAR

For the Petitioner(s) : Mr. Kaustav Roy, Adv.
For the Opposite Party(s) : Mr. Rahul Pandey, Adv.

08/Dated: 07th April, 2025

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner/wife and learned counsel for the opposite party/husband.

2. The present transfer petition has been filed under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure for transfer of Original (Matrimonial Title) Suit No.126 of 2024 from the Court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Ranchi to the Court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Dhanbad.

3. It appears that the original matrimonial suit has been filed by the husband under Section 13(1)(i-a)(i-b) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for dissolution of marriage.

4. It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the parties got married in the year 1997. It has been further submitted that they have been blessed with two children. Further, the petitioner/wife has filed a maintenance case in which maintenance has already been awarded in her favour and her daughter.

5. Learned counsel for the opposite party/husband has submitted that there is good communication between Ranchi to Dhanbad. Further, opposite party/husband is ready to pay Rs.5,000/- to the wife towards travelling cost on each and every appearance.

6. Considering the above facts, this Court finds no reason to transfer the case from Ranchi to Dhanbad. Accordingly, the present case stands rejected.

7. However, the Family Court is directed to get Rs.5,000/- to be deposited by the opposite party/husband on each and every appearance of wife as travelling cost.

8. With above direction, the present case stands disposed of.
