Heard the parties.

The petitioner has moved this Court for grant of bail in connection with Jamua P.S. Case No.03 of 2026 registered for the offences punishable under sections 115(2), 118(1), 126(2), 109, 111(3), 351(2) & 3(5) of the B.N.S., 2023 and under Section 27 of the Arms Act.

The learned senior counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner in furtherance of common intention with the co-accused persons attempted to murder the informant by firing upon him. It is further submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are all false and the specific allegation of firing upon the informant, is upon the co-accused -Ramu Saw. It is then submitted that the injury report issued on 04.01.2026 i.e. on the date of occurrence, by the concerned doctor of the Community Health Centre, Jamua, Giridih goes to show that the informant has only sustained lacerated wound and a supplementary opinion has also been furnished by the same doctor on 12.01.2026 and as by that time the NCCT of the head, though was advised had not been done, the doctor opined that the injury caused to the informant is simple in nature and caused by hard and blunt object. It is further submitted that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent except the present Jamua P.S. Case No. 03 of 2026 and Jamua P.S. Case No. 04 of 2026 which relates to the fire arms recovered in this case. It is next submitted that the petitioner has been in custody since 22.01.2026, as has been mentioned in paragraph no. 11 of the bail application. It is then submitted that charge sheet has already been submitted in this case. It is further submitted that the petitioner undertakes to cooperate with the trial of the case and further undertakes that he will not annoy or disturb the informant or the witnesses of the case in any manner during the trial of the case. Hence, it is submitted that the petitioner be admitted to bail.

The learned Addl. P.P. opposes the prayer for bail.

Considering the submissions of the counsels and the fact as discussed above, I am inclined to enlarge the above-named petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate -1st Class, Giridih, in connection with Jamua P.S. Case No.03 of 2026 with the condition that the petitioner will co-operate with the trial of the case and will furnish his mobile number and photocopy of the Aadhar Card with an undertaking that he will not change his mobile number during the trial of the case, with further condition that he will not annoy or disturb the informant or the witnesses of the case in any manner during the trial of the case.
