Heard the parties.

2. This anticipatory bail application under Section 482 & 484 of BNSS, 2023, has been preferred by the petitioners apprehending their arrest in connection with Kandi P.S. Case No.16/2024, for offences under Sections 302, 201, 34, 498/(A) of the IPC. The case is presently pending before the Court of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Garhwa.
3. Learned APP opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.
4. Admittedly, the petitioners are the father-in-law and the sister-in-law of the deceased. It is alleged that these petitioners and other family members have tortured the deceased as a result of which she was forced to commit suicide. From the record, I find that the deceased was married only on 20.05.2023 and she committed suicide on 12.02.2024 and within 10 months from the date of the marriage. There is allegation of torture by the in-laws which resulted in this incident.
5. Considering the aforesaid facts, this is not a fit case to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, at this stage, the same is dismissed.
