CORAM: SRI ANANDA SEN, J.

For the Petitioner(s) : Mr. Ankit Kumar, Advocate
For the State : Mr. Rakesh Kumar Sinha, APP

03/ 09th July 2025

1. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.
2. This anticipatory bail application under Section 483 and 484 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, has been preferred by the petitioner apprehending his arrest for offences registered under Sections 69 of the B.N.S.
3. From the impugned order and FIR, it is quite clear that since the petitioner and victim both were having relationship as there was love-affair, they entered into physical relationship. It is stated that on the pretext of marriage, physical relationship was entered but later, the petitioner refused. Further it is alleged that the petitioner had offered Rs. 5,00,000/- (Rs. Five Lakh) and requested to delete all the call records.
4. Considering the fact that both the parties are major and they were in relationship since one year, I am inclined to allow this anticipatory bail application of the petitioner. The petitioner above named, is directed to surrender before the learned court below within four weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order and on the event of his surrender or arrest, he shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of learned Court of Judicial Magistrate – 1st Class, Giridih, in connection with Dhanwar P.S. Case No. 65 of 2025, subject to the condition that one of the bailers should be a close relative of the petitioner and other should be a resident of State of Jharkhand, having sufficient landed property in his name or in the name of his ancestors in which he is having share and to that effect, he has to file an affidavit before the Trial Court indicating his share in the property.

5. Accordingly, this anticipatory bail application is allowed.
