I.A. No. 8640 of 2026

Heard Mr. Rakesh Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner. None appears on behalf of the State.

This application has been preferred by the petitioner for condoning a delay of 164 days in filing the revision application.

Having been satisfied with the reasons assigned in this application, the delay of 164 days which had occurred in filing this revision application is condoned and this I.A. is allowed and disposed of.

I.A. No. 6522 of 2026

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is in custody since 26.11.2025 and has completed a substantial part of the sentence of SI for one year for the offence under section 417 of the Indian Penal Code.

Regard being had to the above, during the pendency of this revision application, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs. Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Bokaro in CP No. 150/2014.

I.A. stands disposed of.

Cr. Revision No. 701 of 2026

Issue notice to the opposite party no.2 as to why this revision application shall not be admitted and/or disposed of at the admission stage itself, for which, requisite etc. under Speed Post as well as ordinary process be filed within a period of two weeks.

List this case after service of notice upon the opposite party no.2 under the appropriate heading.
