2/20.01.2026      Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing for the state.

2.    IA No. 6960 of 2025 has been filed for condoning the delay of 50 days in filing of the criminal revision petition.
3.    Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was residing outside of the State for earning his livelihood and it was transpired later on to him that the judgment has been passed and thereafter the petitioner has surrendered before the learned court and filed the present criminal revision petition and in view of that, delay of 50 days has been occurred in filing of the criminal revision petition.
4.    Learned counsel appearing for the State has got no serious objection, if the said delay of 50 days is condoned.
5.    Considering the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner, the period of limitation and further the reasons stated in the IA meant for condoning the delay, the Court finds that the sufficient ground is made out to condone the delay of 50 days.
6.    As such, the delay of 50 days in filing the revision petition is hereby condoned, the IA No. 6960 of 2025 is allowed and disposed of.

7. IA No. 14511 of 2025 has been filed for suspension of sentence to the petitioner.

8. Learned counsel appearing for the State will verify the period of custody of the petitioner and will file affidavit to that effect within a week.

9. Let this matter appear on 29th January 2026 for orders.
