31/ 11.03.2024 It has been submitted by learned counsel for the respondent-State of Jharkhand that since the post of Director, Secondary Education is still vacant hence, inspite of recommendation of the District Education Officer, Deoghar, the salary of the petitioners could not be released in want of approval from the Director concerned.

From perusal of order-sheets it appears that on several occasions the matter was adjourned on the ground that approval has not been accorded by the Director, Secondary Education.

Under such circumstances, the Secretary, Human Resources Development Department, Govt. of Jharkhand shall look into the matter personally and see that the orders of the Court are fully complied with and direct the Director, Secondary Education to look into the matter personally and if the petitioners are found entitled for the salary in view of recommendation of the District Education Officer, Deoghar, the same shall be paid to them within a period of six weeks.
