Versus

The State of Jharkhand.

... .. Opposite Party

CORAM : SRI ANANDA SEN, J.

For the Petitioner(s) : Mr. Anurag Kashyap, Advocate
For the State : Mr. Shailendra Kr. Tiwari, Spl. PP

02/ 07.07.2025

Heard the parties.

- 2. This anticipatory bail application under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, has been preferred by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Ramgarh P.S. Case No.06 of 2025, for offences under Sections 25(1-B)a, 26 and 35 of the Arms Act and under Section 4/5 of the Explosive Substance Act. The case is presently pending before the Court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate at Palamu.
- 3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. and his name has transpired from the confessional statement of the co-accused who is apprehended with the fire arms and other materials.
- 4. Learned A.P.P. representing the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail and submits that the petitioner fled away but one of his associates has been arrested and from his possession fire arms, cartridges, and bomb were recovered. He submits that the person who has been apprehended has disclosed the name of the petitioner to be his associate.
- 5. Considering the nature of allegation, I am of the opinion that this is a case which needs proper investigation including questioning the petitioner. Thus, this is not a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Anticipatory Bail Application stands dismissed.
