 Aadra, District Purulia (W.B.).

... .. Petitioner

Versus

The State of Jharkhand.

... .. Opposite Party

CORAM : SRI ANANDA SEN, J.

For the Petitioner(s) : Mr. Sanddip Barnwal, Advocate
 For the State : Mr. Rakesh Ranjan, A.P.P.

02/ 11.07.2025

Heard the parties.

2. This anticipatory bail application under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, has been preferred by the petitioner apprehending his arrest, for offences under Sections 379 and 411 IPC.

3. Learned A.P.P. representing the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

4. This case was registered against unknown person as there was a theft of the articles of the passengers while they were travelling in the train.

5. The only material against the petitioner is that one of the mobile phones, which was alleged to have been stolen, was found in the verandah of the petitioner, though there is no material to suggest that the same was being used by the petitioner.

6. Considering the nature of evidence against this petitioner, I am inclined to allow this application.

7. Accordingly, this Anticipatory Bail Application stands allowed. The petitioner, above named, is directed to surrender before the learned court below within four weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order and on the event of his surrender or arrest, he shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand), with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Railway, Dhanbad, in connection with G.R.P.S. Dhanbad Case No.38 of 2024, subject to the condition that one of the bailers should be a close relative of the petitioner and other should be a resident of State of Jharkhand, having sufficient landed property in his name or in the name of his ancestors in which he is having share and to that effect, he has to file an affidavit before the Trial Court indicating his share in the property. The petitioner should cooperate with the investigation and appear before the Investigating Officer once in every fifteen days till conclusion of the investigation.
