Heard the parties.

2. In this application the petitioner is praying for grant of regular bail in connection with Godda (Town) PS Case no. 10 of 2016 corresponding to G.R. No. 26 of 2016 registered under sections 406, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code pending in the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Godda.

3. Learned A.P.P. representing the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

4. This is a case where the petitioner by floating a company, has cheated several persons. The trial is in progress. The prayer for regular bail of the petitioner was earlier rejected twice.

6. Considering the nature of the case since the trial has proceeded, I am not inclined to grant bail to this petitioner.

7. The trial Court should try to conclude the trial as early as possible by fixing a schedule to record the statement of the witnesses. The schedule so prepared should be handed over to the investigating officer so that examination of the remaining witnesses can be concluded within the scheduled time.

8. This bail application is dismissed.
