Versus
The State of Jharkhand and Anr. ... Opposite Party(s)

CORAM : SRI ANANDA SEN, J.

For the Petitioner(s) : Mr. Mahesh Tewari, Advocate.
For the State : Mr. Ajay Kumar Pathak, A.P.P.
For the OP No. 2 : Mr. Deepak Sahu, Advocate

07/ 11.06.2025

Mr. Mahesh Tewari, learned counsel for the petitioner on instruction from his client submits that his client is ready to keep his wife.

2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the wife also submits that the wife is ready to reside with the husband.

3. Considering the said submission, since this is a dispute between husband and wife, I refer the matter to the JHALSA for mediation where both the parties will appear on 23rd June 2025 before the Member Secretary, JHALSA who will assign a trained Mediator. The Mediator will try to mediate the dispute between the parties and send a report to this Court within six weeks. If necessary, further time should be granted to the Mediator and the parties to reach at a conclusion.

4. On each date of appearance before the Mediator the petitioner will give a sum of Rs. 1,500/- to his wife in presence of the Mediator.

5. Interim order dated 16.08.2024 to continue.

6. List this case after receipt of the report from JHALSA.

7. Let a copy of this order be sent to the Member Secretary, JHALSA.
