

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JHARKHAND AT RANCHI
W.P.(PIL) No.171 of 2012

Court on its own motion Petitioner
Vrs.
The State of Jharkhand and others. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE JAYA ROY

For the Petitioner : Mr. Piyush Poddar, Amicus Curiae
For the Respondents: Mr. M.S. Anwar, Advocate General

Order No.10

Dated 2nd July, 2013.

Learned Advocate General has rightly pointed out that the State now has taken serious steps to see that food adulteration problem should be clearly eliminated and in that effort, learned Advocate General suggested that the Court may also proceed expeditiously to decide the cases relating to food adulteration and that matter may be taken on the administrative side by the High Court.

So far as, the steps to eliminate the food adulteration is concerned, the State may continue to improve the system including time to take samples of the food articles and send them to laboratory and for obtaining testing report without any delay and in case of food adulteration or mis-branding of the food articles, the case may be filed in Courts without any delay. So far as monitoring of the case of food adulteration is concerned, a copy of this order be sent to Registrar General, High Court of Jharkhand for placing it in administrative side.

The State may further submit status report on 09th September, 2013.

(Prakash Tatia, C.J.)

(Jaya Roy, J.)