CM(M) No. 412/2025
CM No. 6259/2025

Ghulam Mohammad Ahangir & Ors.

...Appellant/Petitioner(s)

Through: Mr. Aabid Mushtaq Dar, Advocate.

Vs.

Farooq Ahmad Ahangir & Ors.

...Respondent(s)

Through:

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAHUL BHARTI, JUDGE

ORDER

26.09.2025

1. Heard Mr. Aabid Mushtaq, learned counsel for the petitioners.
2. The petitioners are the plaintiffs in a civil suit pending adjudication in the court of learned Munsiff, Chadoora.
3. The four respondents herein are the defendants in the said civil suit.
4. The institution of the civil suit is of 2019 and is said to be now pending final arguments.
5. The petitioners, as plaintiffs, came forward with an application for seeking impleadment of three persons namely Mst. Gulshana, Mst. Shareefa and Mst. Khurshi as co-defendants in the suit.

6. Filing of said application came to take place on 03.05.2025 which has suffered rejection by virtue of an order dated 04.09.2025 by the court of learned Munsiff, Chadoora, aggrieved whereof the petitioners are invoking the supervisory jurisdiction of this Court under article 227 of the Constitution of India assailing the legality and validity of the impugned order dated 04.09.2025.
7. In their application for seeking impleadment of said three persons, the petitioners failed to cite the reason as to why at the first instance said three persons, if they were the necessary parties to be impleaded in the civil suit, were left out from being so named and joined co-defendants along-with the respondents.
8. The court of learned Munsiff, Chadoora, by its well reasoned order, has exposed the petitioners to this effect that the civil suit is pending adjudication for last six years having even reached the stage of final arguments when the application is getting filed from the end of the petitioners for seeking impleadment of said three persons.
9. The learned court of Munsiff, Chadoora has referred to the petitioners as being caught sleeping over the matter and thereby afflicting the institution of filing of application with gross delay and lack of reasoning.

10. This Court finds no iota of illegality or invalidity attending the impugned order dated 04.09.2025 and, as such, the petition is dismissed.

11. Registrar Judicial, Srinagar to forward a copy of this order to the court of learned Munsiff, Chadoora for being taken on record for proceeding ahead with the adjudication of the civil suit on an expeditious note.
