ORDER

26.09.2025

01. Petitioners are also present in person.
02. Through the medium of the instant petition, filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners seek issuance of writs/directions in the nature of:

- (i) “Mandamus for commanding upon the official respondents 1 to 5 to provide them the necessary protection as they are apprehending threat to their lives at the hands of private respondents 6 to 12 for contracting marriage out of their own free will and choice;
- (ii) Prohibition for restraining official respondents 1 to 5 to make unnecessary arrest of the petitioner No.2 being the husband of the petitioner No.1 and for restraining all the respondents from interfering into their matrimonial life.”

03. It is the case of the petitioners that they being major have solemnized marriage out of their own free will and choice in accordance with the Islamic Personal Law guaranteeing them on 10th Sept., 2025. That they have placed on record a photocopy of “Nikah Nama” forming annexure-II to their petition. That the petitioner No.1 was willing to marry with petitioner No.2, expressed her wish before her parents who did not agree and instead forced her to marry with some other person against her wishes. That they now apprehend that the aforesaid private respondents may lodge a false and frivolous complaint before the police concerned to get an FIR registered against the petitioner No.2.

04. The petitioners who are present in person and whose identification was checked, corroborated the contents of their petition. Their statements were got recorded by the Registry of this court in attestation of this petition.

05. The petitioners have placed on record the scanned copies of their Adhaar Cards, school certificate, passport as also alleged “Nikah Nama”. Perusal of the copies of the school certificate and Adhaar reveals that the date of birth of petitioner No.1 Rukhsana Rashid is 02.01.1994 while as that of petitioner No.2 Mohd Younis Dar is 01.06.1991.

06. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that since the petitioners being major have contracted marriage out of their own free will and choice, as such the instant writ petition be disposed of at this thresh-hold stage in view of the law laid down by the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India in case “Lata Singh vs. State of UP and ors (2006) 5 SCC 475”;and “Arumugam Servia v. State of Tamil Nadu (2011) 6 SCC 405” decided on 19th April 2011, by passing the appropriate directions upon the respondents to safe guard the life and liberty of the petitioners, to prevent any sort of undue harassment to them, and also interference with their matrimonial life.

07. In the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is of the opinion that the instant matter can be disposed of at this threshold stage by passing appropriate orders in accordance with the law.

08. Accordingly the instant petition is disposed of with the following directions:

- i) The official respondents 1 to 5 shall ensure that no unjustified harassment is being caused to the petitioners and they shall be provided protection as and when asked for the same;

- ii) The private respondents 6 to 12 shall also desist from causing any illegal and unjustified harassment to the petitioners, so that their right to life and personal liberty is not interfered with.

09. However, in view of the ratio decidendi of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Doly Rani vs. Manish Kumar Chanchal [2024 Live Law (SC) 334 =2024 SCC Online SC 754] decided on 19.04.2024, this order shall not be construed as any opinion of this Court regarding the validity of marriage as per Personal Law guaranteeing the parties.

10. Disposed of along with connected CM.
