Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the investigation of the case is complete. This fact is also being stated by petitioner's counsel by adding that the police is asking the petitioner to appear before it so that the challan is presented.

Petitioner has also filed an application seeking a direction to the police not to present the challan.

I have gone through the application. Since the investigation is complete, the respondents are at liberty to present the challan. However, in that eventuality the petitioner shall cooperate with the police in the matter.
