ORDER
27.09.2022

In terms of order dated 19.09.2022, this Court had directed for personal appearance of the appellant as well as the respondent to probe the scope of mutual amicable settlement between the parties, who are engaged in a marital feud. The respondent has come to earn a divorce decree in her favour against the appellant on the ground of cruelty from the Court of Additional District Judge, Matrimonial Cases, Jammu, thereby bringing to an end ten years long marriage to a dissolution.

This Court interacted individually in the chambers with the appellant as well as the respondent. The respondent at her end submitted that she has even suffered loss of custody and company of her son for the sake of saving herself from suffering any further at the hands of the appellant and as such cannot re-concile herself with an option to co-habit with the appellant in the marital relationship, whereas on the other hand the appellant submits that he has been burdened with the responsibility of the son whereas the respondent is an earning person who has even appropriated a Jammu Development Authority residential plot though registered in the name of the respondent but for which the appellant had paid the money from his end.

In the light of the stalemate, this Court deems it proper to list this case for final hearing on 30.09.2022.
