.....Respondent(s)

Coram: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAHUL BHARTI, JUDGE

ORDER
28.10.2022

From the conduct of the appellant and his counsel in the present case it seems that this appeal is being pursued just for the sake of letting it to stay on the docket of this Court rather than for the purpose of seeking its adjudication. This Court is making this observation on account of the fact that when this Court had desired the personal appearance of the parties along with their counsel the appellant had appeared without counsel for passing on the impression to this Court as if the re-conciliation exercise was being undertaken just for the fun sake.

On two occasions, learned counsel for the appellant had chosen to stay away from joining the re-conciliation exercise whereas the respondent along with her counsel remained present. Thereafter, on the last date of hearing the learned counsel for the appellant was apprised of the displeasure of this Court. Today also, there is no appearance on behalf of the appellant. This Court is convinced that the appellant and his counsel are not serious in prosecuting the matter, as such the appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.
