ORDER
22.05.2023

This Court, vide order dated 09.11.2020, has observed that since the fault lies on the part of the respondents in deducting excess amount of service tax from the bills raised by the petitioner, therefore the petitioner was directed to file an application for the said purpose and subject to petitioner filing of the application, respondents were directed to follow up the application filed by the petitioner for getting the amount refunded to him.

Mr. Rahul Pant, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that he has since filed the application before the respondents but till date, respondents have not complied the aforesaid direction.

Be that as it may, the petitioner is directed to file fresh application in conformity with the direction (supra) passed by this Court and subject to the petitioner filing an application within a period of one week, respondent Nos. 3 and 4 are directed to follow up the said application for getting the amount refunded to the petitioner as already directed by this Court vide order dated 09.11.2020.

Let the needful be done within a period of two weeks from today and respondents are directed to file fresh compliance report strictly in conformity with the direction passed by this Court on 09.11.2020.

List on 14.06.2023.

Copy of this order be provided to learned counsel for the respondents by the Registry.
