ORDER

This Court vide order/ judgment dated 10.03.2022 has called upon the respondents to initiate the process by first getting proper demarcation of the land of the petitioner from Revenue Agency and in case upon demarcation, it was found that the land of the petitioner is under embankment, further process shall be initiated to acquire the same under the provision of the law laid down under Land Acquisition Act in the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir.

Mr. R. S Jamwal, appearing counsel for the respondents was granted two weeks' time to comply with the aforesaid process.

When the matter was listed on 15.07.2022, the order dated 10.03.2022, was not complied with and as a consequence of which, the respondent was granted four weeks' as last and final opportunity for implementing the direction already passed by this Court on 10th of March 2022 in its letter and spirit and further time was granted to the respondents to file compliance report.

When the case is taken up today, the needful has not been done in terms of order dated 10th of March 2022, inspite of the respondents having availed last and final opportunity.

Mr. R. S Jamwal, learned AAG appearing counsel for the respondents further seeks some time to comply with aforesaid order.

In the interest of justice, one week's time is granted to the learned counsel for the respondents to comply with the aforesaid order passed by this Court on 10th of March 2022 in its letter and spirit, failing which, respondent No. 4-Executive Engineer shall remain present before the Court on the next date of hearing. While filing the compliance report, the respondents shall also explain the reasons for non-implementation of the directions passed by this Court on 10th of March 2022.

List on 25.11.2022.
