BEARING NO.CPI/KKP/G.PITSI/2026 ISSUED BY THE RESPONDENT POLICE TO THE PETITIONERS PRODUCED AS ANNEXURE-A.

THIS PETITION, COMING ON FOR ORDERS, THIS DAY, ORDER WAS MADE THEREIN AS UNDER:

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.NAGAPRASANNA

ORAL ORDER

Heard Sri.Sadhana S Desai, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, Sri.B.N.Jagadeesha, learned Addl. SPP appearing for the respondent and have perused the material on record.

2. The petitioners are before this Court calling in question the notice dated 17.03.2026 issued under Section 35(3) of the BNSS, 2023, without enclosing any of the documents necessary to be enclosed.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the issue in the lis stands covered by the judgment rendered by this Court in W.P.No.15125/2024, disposed on 19.07.2024, wherein it has held as follows:

"7. I have given my anxious consideration to the submissions made by the respective learned counsel and have perused the material on record.

8. The issue lies in a narrow compass, much is said about the notice being issued under Section 41A of the Cr.P.C., both by the State and the learned senior counsel for the petitioner. But, the notice is otherwise, it is issued under Section 41(1)(a) of the Cr.P.C. Section 41 is under Chapter-V - arrest of persons. What is invoked in the notice is Section 41(1)(a) of the Cr.P.C., which mandates that any police officer, without an order from the Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person who commits an offence in the presence of a police officer and it should be cognizable offence. Since other provisions of the section are not invoked they are not considered. Section 41 of the Act reads as follows:

"41. When police may arrest without warrant.—(1)
Any police officer may without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person—

(a) who commits, in the presence of a police officer, a cognizable offence;

(b) against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed a cognizable offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may be less than seven years or which may extend to seven years whether with or without fine, if the following conditions are satisfied, namely:—

(i) the police officer has reason to believe on the basis of such complaint, information, or suspicion that such person has committed the said offence;

(ii) the police office is satisfied that such arrest is necessary—

(a) to prevent such person from committing any further offence; or

(b) for proper investigation of the offence; or

- (c) to prevent such person from causing the evidence of the offence to disappear or tampering with such evidence in any manner; or
- (d) to prevent such person from making any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to the police officer; or
- (e) as unless such person is arrested, his presence in the Court whenever required cannot be ensured,

and the police officer shall record while making such arrest, his reasons in writing.

Provided that a police officer shall, in all cases where the arrest of a person is not required under the provisions of this sub-section, record the reasons in writing for not making the arrest.

- (ba) against whom credible information has been received that he has committed a cognizable offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to more than seven years whether with or without fine or with death sentence and the police officer has reason to believe on the basis of that information that such person has committed the said offence;
- (c) who has been proclaimed as an offender either under this Code or by order of the State Government; or
- (d) in whose possession anything is found which may reasonably be suspected to be stolen property and who may reasonably be suspected of having committed an offence with reference to such thing; or
- (e) who obstructs a police officer while in the execution of his duty, or who has escaped, or attempts to escape, from lawful custody; or
- (f) who is reasonably suspected of being a deserter from any of the Armed Forces of the Union; or
- (g) who has been concerned in, or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists, of his having been concerned in, any act committed at any place out of India which, if committed in India, would have been punishable as an offence, and for which he is, under any law relating to extradition, or otherwise, liable to be apprehended or detained in custody in India; or

- (h) who, being a released convict, commits a breach of any rule made under sub-section (5) of Section 356; or
- (i) for whose arrest any requisition, whether written or oral, has been received from another police officer, provided that the requisition specifies the person to be arrested and the offence or other cause for which the arrest is to be made and it appears there from that the person might lawfully be arrested without a warrant by the officer who issued the requisition.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Section 42, no person concerned in a non-cognizable offence or against whom a complaint has been made or credible information has been received or reasonable suspicion exists of his having so concerned, shall be arrested except under a warrant or order of a Magistrate."

(Emphasis supplied)

Section 41(2) mandates that no person shall be arrested in a non-cognizable offence without a warrant from the hands of the Magistrate. Therefore, Section 41 deals with arrest without warrant and Section 41(2) mandates only with warrant.

9. Section 41-A of the Cr.P.C., reads as follows:

"41-A. Notice of appearance before police officer.—

(1) The police officer shall, in all cases where the arrest of a person is not required under the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 41, issue a notice directing the person against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed a cognizable offence, to appear before him or at such other place as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Where such a notice is issued to any person, it shall be the duty of that person to comply with the terms of the notice.

(3) Where such person complies and continues to comply with the notice, he shall not be arrested in respect of the offence referred to in the notice unless, for reasons to be recorded, the police officer is of the opinion that he ought to be arrested.

NC: 2026:KHC:17348
CRL.P No. 4788 of 2026

(4) Where such person, at any time, fails to comply with the terms of the notice or is unwilling to identify himself, the police officer may, subject to such orders as may have been passed by a competent court in this behalf, arrest him for the offence mentioned in the notice."

The Police Officer in all cases where arrest of a person is not required under the provisions of Section 41(1), a notice directing the person to appear can be issued. There are certain conditions stipulated in sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) of Section 41A which would not require elaboration. Therefore, the notice so issued in the case at hand though quotes Section 41(1)(a), it is in fact issued under Section 41-A, as the petitioner is directed to appear before the Police. The notice so issued requires to be noticed. The first notice issued on 06-06-2024 reads as follows:

"ಕಲಂ-41(1)(ಎ) ಸಿ.ಆರ್.ಪಿ.ಸಿ ಅಡಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ನೀಡಿದ ಪೊಲೀಸ್ ನೋಟೀಸ್"

This is communicated to the petitioner through whatsapp. A perusal at the notice does not indicate that the petitioner is being summoned in any crime registered. Therefore, it is directing appearance without a crime being registered. The petitioner and the Station House Officer would exchange certain chats on whatsapp. They become germane to be noticed and they read as follows:

"You, This

(Emphasis added)

The petitioner pleads that if a copy of the FIR is made available it would be of great help to him. No reply is received. But communications between the two galore. Therefore, the petitioner knocks at the doors of this Court. This Court on 11-06-2024 has passed the following order:

"Heard the learned Senior counsel, Sri. Aruna Shyam M., appearing for the petitioner.

Office objection qua maintainability stands over ruled.

Learned HCGP waives notice for the respondents.

The petitioner claims to be a renowned senior journalist. He is now knocking at the doors of this Court calling in question the notice issued under Section 41A of the Cr.P.C. The petition appends Section 41A notice issued to the petitioner directing him to appear before the Station House Officer of Amruthahalli Police Station, Bengaluru. The notice does not refer to any crime registered much less against the petitioner, for him to be summoned. A bald notice under Section 41A of the Cr.P.C. is issued to the petitioner.

CRL.P No. 4788 of 2026

The learned Senior counsel representing the petitioner, would submit that the petitioner has received another notice on the morning of today i.e., 11.06.2024 directing the petitioner to appear immediately before the police again without indicating any crime being registered against the petitioner. Without registering the crime against the petitioner, as found in Section 41A of the Cr.P.C., a summoning cannot kick in.

Therefore, there shall be an interim order of stay of the notice dated 06.06.2024 or any other notice issued to the petitioner in the aftermath of the notice dated 06.06.2024.

There is not even a semblance of procedure followed in the case at hand.

The Station House Officer or the signatory to Section 41A notice shall be present before the Court on 21.06.2024 at 2.30 p.m.

List the matter on 21.06.2024 at 2.30 p.m."

It is admitted by the Station House Officer that there was an error in the notice and it is defended on the score that the error was out of inadvertence. Further, the defence is that a second notice is issued in which crime number does figure. The second notice dated 10-06-2024 reads as follows:

“ಕಲಂ-41(1)(ಎ) ಸಿ.ಆರ್.ಪಿ.ಸಿ ಅಡಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ನೀಡಿದ 2ನೇ ಪೊಲೀಸ್

This notice does have clarity as to why the petitioner is being summoned. The matter could be disposed of recording the fact that the second notice does contain the crime number, as the issue may seem to be very simple. In the considered view of the Court, it is not, as Section 41 of the Cr.P.C., deals with arrest of persons. Any notice so issued under Section 41-A if not complied with, the Station House Officer is entitled to arrest the noticee. Therefore, the noticee must be aware of why he is being summoned to the Police Station, as summoning to the Police Station is not summoning a person to a happy place. A citizen must know as to why he is being summoned. The information to the citizen cannot be half baked; it must be in full. The notice must contain the crime number and the purpose for which he is being summoned. While it can be transmitted electronically, no fault can be found with that, but it should mention crime number. The duty of the Station House Officer would not stop at mentioning crime number, but he should also attach to the communication, a copy of the FIR, so registered against the noticee, as power is available to summon the accused or any person in connection with a crime. Therefore, the noticee, without knowing the crime number and without getting a copy of the FIR, cannot be asked to appear before an officer of the police station on receipt of notice under Section 41-A.

10. Since the issue would crop up every now and then, I deem it appropriate to notice the provisions of the new regime – Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 ('BNSS' for short). Section 35 of the BNSS is the corresponding provision which deals with arrest of persons. It is again in Chapter-V. Sections 41 and 41A of the Cr.P.C., are completely found in a solitary provision, Section 35 of the BNSS. It reads as follows:

35. When police may arrest without warrant.—(1) Any police officer may without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person—

- (a) who commits, in the presence of a police officer, a cognizable offence; or
 - (b) against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed a cognizable offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may be less than seven years or which may extend to seven years whether with or without fine, if the following conditions are satisfied, namely:—
 - (i) the police officer has reason to believe on the basis of such complaint, information, or suspicion that such person has committed the said offence;
 - (ii) the police officer is satisfied that such arrest is necessary—
 - (a) to prevent such person from committing any further offence; or
 - (b) for proper investigation of the offence; or
 - (c) to prevent such person from causing the evidence of the offence to disappear or tampering with such evidence in any manner; or
 - (d) to prevent such person from making any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to the police officer; or
 - (e) as unless such person is arrested, his presence in the Court whenever required cannot be ensured,
- and the police officer shall record while making such arrest, his reasons in writing:

Provided that a police officer shall, in all cases where the arrest of a person is not required under the provisions of this sub-section, record the reasons in writing for not making the arrest; or

- (c) against whom credible information has been received that he has committed a cognizable offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to more than seven years whether with or without fine or with death sentence and the police officer has reason to believe on the basis of that information that such person has committed the said offence; or

- (d) who has been proclaimed as an offender either under this Sanhita or by order of the State Government; or*
- (e) in whose possession anything is found which may reasonably be suspected to be stolen property and who may reasonably be suspected of having committed an offence with reference to such thing; or*
- (f) who obstructs a police officer while in the execution of his duty, or who has escaped, or attempts to escape, from lawful custody; or*
- (g) who is reasonably suspected of being a deserter from any of the Armed Forces of the Union; or*
- (h) who has been concerned in, or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists, of his having been concerned in, any act committed at any place out of India which, if committed in India, would have been punishable as an offence, and for which he is, under any law relating to extradition, or otherwise, liable to be apprehended or detained in custody in India; or*
- (i) who, being a released convict, commits a breach of any rule made under sub-section (5) of Section 394; or*
- (j) for whose arrest any requisition, whether written or oral, has been received from another police officer, provided that the requisition specifies the person to be arrested and the offence or other cause for which the arrest is to be made and it appears therefrom that the person might lawfully be arrested without a warrant by the officer who issued the requisition.*

(2) Subject to the provisions of Section 39, no person concerned in a non-cognizable offence or against whom a complaint has been made or credible information has been received or reasonable suspicion exists of his having so concerned, shall be arrested except under a warrant or order of a Magistrate.

(3) The police officer shall, in all cases where the arrest of a person is not required under sub-section (1) issue a notice directing the person against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed a cognizable offence, to appear before him or at such other place as may be specified in the notice.

(4) Where such a notice is issued to any person, it shall be the duty of that person to comply with the terms of the notice.

(5) Where such person complies and continues to comply with the notice, he shall not be arrested in respect of the offence referred to in the notice unless, for reasons to be recorded, the police officer is of the opinion that he ought to be arrested.

(6) Where such person, at any time, fails to comply with the terms of the notice or is unwilling to identify himself, the police officer may, subject to such orders as may have been passed by a competent Court in this behalf, arrest him for the offence mentioned in the notice.

(7) No arrest shall be made without prior permission of an officer not below the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police in case of an offence which is punishable for imprisonment of less than three years and such person is infirm or is above sixty years of age."

(Emphasis supplied)

Sub-sections (2) to (6) of Section 35 of the BNSS assume significance. Section 35(4) permits issuance of a notice to any person and the noticee shall be bound to comply with the terms of the notice. Section 35(6) commands that if a person fails to comply with the terms of the notice or is unwilling to identify himself, the Police Officer may, subject to such orders as may have been passed by the competent Court in this behalf, arrest him for the offence mentioned in the notice. Therefore, the rigour is little stronger. Stronger the rigour, the noticee is required to know all that he has to reply, prior to his appearance before the Police. It, thus, becomes mandatory for a notice to be issued under Section 35 of the BNSS to mention the crime number, the offence alleged in the crime so registered and necessarily append to it a copy of the FIR so registered, as any person who receives the notice must be aware for what he is being summoned to the Police Station.

11. The Apex Court, in several judgments, has considered the importance and purpose of notice under Section 41A of the Cr.P.C., A Division Bench of High Court of Delhi in the case of

The Division Bench judgment of the High Court of Delhi is accepted by several States and respective Departments of Police and have issued guidelines. To quote, the Delhi Police have issued a standing order regarding Section 41A notice. It reads as follows:

"I INTRODUCTION

It has been noticed that some investigating officers do not comply with the legal requirements of Sections 41A, 91, 160 and 175 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Cr.P.C.) with regard to summoning of witnesses or suspects in the course of an investigation or in connection with an inquest held u/s 174 Cr.P.C. These sections of the Criminal Procedure Code empower investigating officers to examine orally any person who is believed to be acquainted with the facts and the circumstances of the case(s).

Section 41A Cr.P.C. stipulates issuance of notice for appearance before a Police Officer in all cases where the arrest of person is not required. The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in its judgement titled 'Amandeep Singh Johar Vs. State of NCT of *Delhi' dated 07.02.2018, has categorically explained about the procedure to be mandatorily followed by Police Officers as has been mentioned in Section 41A Cr.P.C. also. A Model format for notice under section 41A Cr.P.C. and directions of Hon'ble High Court of Delhi are enumerated in this S.O. and also enclosed as Annexure - A.

"Section 41A Cr.P.C.(Notice of appearance before police officer.

- (1) The police officer shall, in all cases where the arrest of a person is not required under the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 41, issue a notice directing the person against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed a cognizable offence, to appear before him or at such other place as may be specified in the notice.
- (2) Where such a notice is issued to any person, it shall be the duty of that person to comply with the terms of the notice.
- (3) Where such person complies and continues to comply with the notice, he shall not be arrested in respect of the offence referred to in the notice unless, for reasons to be recorded, the police officer is of the opinion that he ought to be arrested.
- (4) Where such person, at any time, fails to comply with the terms of the notice or is unwilling to identify himself, the police officer may, subject to such orders as may have been passed by a competent court in this behalf, arrest him for the offence mentioned in the notice."
