The controversy in the present appeal is about the dissolution of the marriage solemnized between the appellant and the respondent on 25.11.2013. The appellant is aggrieved because his petition for dissolution under Section 13(1)(ia) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 [for short, 'the Act'] is dismissed. This appeal is dismissed for default on 17.04.2025 after preemptory order.

The respondent and the appellant have agreed on terms and request for disposal of the appeal. In fact, an application is filed under Order XXIII Rule 3 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908. This application is treated as an application under Section 13B of the Act waiving the compulsory waiting period as contemplated thereunder. The learned counsel for the appellant is permitted to make the corrections in the application under Order XXIII Rule 3 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908.

In the light of the afore circumstances and because the dispute that has persisted from 2016 is is now being settled amicably, the applications [I.A. Nos.1 and 2] of 2026 are allowed condoning the delay in filing the recalling application and restoring the appeal by recalling the order dated 17.04.2025.
