3. Petitioner was Assistant Fire Station Officer at Office of the Deputy Director Karnataka State Fire and Emergency Services, Bengaluru and after attaining superannuation, he filed pension papers before the respondent authorities seeking to disburse his pension. Based on which, the respondent authorities granted the pension and set the pension for the amount of Rs.14,050/- commuted pension was set at Rs.4,683/- and the commuted amount of Rs.4,683/- is to be deducted upto 07.10.2030 starting from 08.10.2015.

reduction of the deduction period for the commutation amount from 15 years to 10 years and 8 months. However, the same was not considered. Hence, the petitioner is perforced to approach this Court.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court at Dharwad Bench in W.P.No.105244/2025 and the Principal Bench, Bengaluru, in W.P.No.23448/2024 have considered similar prayer of other employees and stayed the deduction from the pension. It is also submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in W.P.No.108193/2025 at Dharwad Bench and W.P.No.19172/2024 at the Principal Bench, Bengaluru, passed an order directing the respondent authorities to consider the representation of the petitioners therein. Therefore, the petitioner seeks similar order in his favour, as he is similarly placed as that of those petitioners. In view of non-consideration of the representation so made by the petitioner dated 20.02.2026 at Annexure-C, he is before this Court.

6. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Government Advocate appearing for respondent-State and on perusal of the orders relied upon by the petitioner which are annexed to the petition, this Court deems it appropriate to allow the petition with a direction to consider petitioner's representation dated 20.02.2026, in the manner known to law and in accordance to the similar orders passed by this Court on the earlier occasion.
