2. Learned Additional Government Advocate is directed to take notice for respondent Nos.1 to 3. Sri.Sudhirsingh R.Vijapur, learned Deputy Solicitor General of India is directed to take notice for respondent No.4.

3. Petitioner was Associate Professor and after attaining superannuation, he filed pension papers before the respondent authorities seeking to disburse his pension. Based on which, the respondent authorities granted the pension and set the pension for the amount of Rs.39,900/- commuted pension was set at Rs.13,300/- and monthly reduced pension was set at Rs.26,600/- and the commuted amount of Rs.13,300/- is to be deducted upto 16.12.2028 starting from 17.12.2013.

amount from 15 years to 10 years and 8 months. However, the same was not considered. Hence, the petitioner is perforced to approach this Court.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court at Dharwad Bench in W.P.No.105244/2025 and the Principal Bench, Bengaluru, in W.P.No.23448/2024 have considered similar prayer of other employees and stayed the deduction from the pension. It is also submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in W.P.No.108193/2025 at Dharwad Bench and W.P.No.19172/2024 at the Principal Bench, Bangaluru, passed an order directing the respondent authorities to consider the representation of the petitioners therein. Therefore, the petitioner seeks similar order in his favour, as he is similarly placed as that of those petitioners. In view of non-consideration of the representation so made by the petitioner dated 09.12.2025 at Annexure-D, he is before this Court.
