CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.VISHWAJITH SHETTY

ORAL ORDER

Petitioner-Insurance Company is before this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution of India seeking following reliefs:

"A) A writ order or direction in nature of certiorari be granted by quashing the impugned order dated 11.11.2025 vide Annexure-C passed by the in the Court of I Addl. Senior Civil Judge at Kalaburagi in MVC No. 226/2025, in the interest of justice and equity.

B) That any appropriate order or writ or direction may be passed as deemed fit on the facts and circumstances of case to which the petitioner is entitled."

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

3. Respondent No.1 had filed MVC No.226/2025 before the jurisdictional MACT claiming compensation for the injuries suffered by her in the road traffic accident occurred on 14.10.2024. The offending vehicle in the said accident appears to have been insured with the petitioner-Insurance Company. A written statement on behalf of the petitioner along with I.A.No.I seeking permission to file written statement was rejected by the MACT on the ground that the said written statement was filed belatedly, after expiry of statutory period of 90 days. It is under these circumstances, the petitioner is before this Court.

4. The Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in WP No.203746/2025 disposed of on 25.11.2025, in paragraph No.6 has observed as under:

"06. The Apex Court in the case of Kailash vs. Nanhku and others, reported in (2005) 4 SCC 480, has held that though order VIII Rule 1 of CPC, and the proviso thereto, caste an obligation on the defendant to file written statement within time prescribed therein, the provisions do not deal with nor specifically take away the power of Court to take a written statement on record, though filed beyond time as provided for therein. The provisions are directly and not mandatory. The condonation of delay in filing the written statement shall be considered depending on the facts of each case. That in spite of the time limit provided under Order VIII Rule 1 CPC, the Court is not powerless to permit a written statement being filed."

5. Under the circumstances, the impugned order passed by the MACT rejecting I.A.No.I and also the written statement filed on behalf of the petitioner cannot be sustained.

6. Accordingly, the following:

ORDER

- i. The writ petition is allowed.
- ii. The impugned order dated 04.11.2025 passed by I Addl. Senior Civil Judge, Kalaburagi on I.A.No.I is hereby set aside and jurisdictional MACT is directed to take on record the written statement filed on behalf of the petitioner and proceed in accordance with law.
