ORDER

The above Crl.M.As are filed to condone the delay of 3311, 3311 and 3395 days respectively in filing the revision petitions.

2. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Public Prosecutor.

3. I have perused the affidavits filed in support of the applications to condone the delay. The reason shown in the affidavits is that the revision petitioner was not informed about the disposal of the appeals filed by him by the counsel. Apart from such vague allegation, there is nothing to substantiate the same. It is also stated in the affidavits that in the meantime, he went abroad in connection with his job and he was in Qatar since 2023. No document has been produced to substantiate the said contention. The delay is almost ten years. That apart, the learned Prosecutor submitted that altogether fourteen crimes of similar nature are registered against the petitioner and in most of the cases he was convicted also. Since the petitioner has failed to offer reasonable cause for the delay, I see no reason to condone the delay. Accordingly, the delay condonation applications are dismissed.

Consequently, the criminal revision petitions are also dismissed.
